

Volunteer report by Lily Stepanyan
European solidarity corps volunteer at Kulturhaus Brotfabrik from 01.10.2021 to 30.09.2022

I applied for my project with great enthusiasm and passion, and I had the impression from the first day in the office of Kulturhaus Brotfabrik, that I was in the right place. This one-year project was even above my expectations.

Vienna is a stunning, artistic, and diverse city. It inspired me for my artistic activities and opened many new opportunities, just like the Kulturhaus Brotfabrik. I was happy to know the friendly and supportive team I was working with. Indeed, here I had a chance to learn more about local culture, discover different art forms and meet many people from different backgrounds and cultures through our projects. During this period, I had various tasks, making my every day diverse and interesting, allowing me to develop my skills and learn new ones. On a daily basis, I supported the preparations of various events and workshops. I was also involved in the assistance of administrative documentation and participated in marketing activities.

The most important part of my project was that during this period, I could reflect on myself and understand what I wanted to do in the future, which was still mysterious to me before this period of my life.

Tips for the new volunteers: follow your heart, choose the project that you want to be part of, and just go for it...
